

Madison Fleischer

Liberal Candidate for Cloverdale–Langley City

---

Madison Fleischer is a small business owner and experienced community leader, who is ready to build a better future for the families in Cloverdale–Langley City.

Madison has deep roots in Langley. She attended Trinity Western University, and now operates a public relations firm in the city. With over a decade of experience working alongside various orders of government, Madison knows how to deliver real results for communities – and now, she is ready to be your voice in Parliament.

Madison is also a dedicated volunteer who works hard to drive positive change in our community. Her contributions have earned her recognition as one of Surrey's Top 25 Under 25 for her project, Slava Sweatshirts, that provided financial assistance to Ukrainians amidst the ongoing conflict. She is also a recipient of the DiverseCity Community Resource Society's Humanitarian Heart Award and the BC Medal of Good Citizenship for her significant humanitarian efforts locally and globally.

As the next Member of Parliament for Cloverdale–Langley City, Madison will work with the Liberal team to build more homes and protect renters, lower the cost of living, invest in stronger public health care, keep assault weapons off our streets, and grow an economy that works for everyone.
