Joy O'Donnell
Liberal Candidate for Brantford—Brant South

Joy O'Donnell is an accomplished community leader, a dedicated volunteer, and a Certified Financial Planner with deep roots in Brantford—Brant South. Over the past 30 years, Joy has been deeply involved in strengthening the Brantford/Brant South/Six Nations community through volunteer work and public service, supporting local families and businesses.

Joy serves as President of the Chamber of Commerce Brantford-Brant and has held leadership roles on numerous local boards, including the Grand Erie Public Health Board, where she recently completed her third term as a Director, and the Rotary Club of Brantford, where she served as President in 2022. Her contributions to the community have been recognized with the City of Brantford Economic Development Board's Ambassador Award and a Canada 150 Award.

Through her work with community organizations and different levels of government, Joy has seen firsthand the importance of bringing people together and ensuring local priorities are heard. As the founder of Grand Financial Planning, she understands the challenges facing small businesses in the riding, and she brings years of experience helping families build for the future.

At this crucial time for our country, Joy is ready to be the strongest voice for Brantford—Brant South in Parliament. She will work tirelessly with Mark Carney and our Liberal team to deliver the serious leadership her community deserves, supporting workers and small businesses, bringing costs down, investing in local infrastructure, and building a stronger, more prosperous future for families across Brantford—Brant South.
